Korea Studies Luncheon Series

Korea in the U.S. Congress: Lessons Learned

Featuring:

Dennis Halpin

Visiting Scholar, U.S.-Korea Institute at SAIS

Monday, September 9, 2013
12:30 – 2:00 PM
(Lunch will be provided)
Bernstein-Offit Building, Room 714

Please RSVP to Michelle Kae at mkae1@jhu.edu by Friday, September 6

The Korea Studies Program at SAIS invites SAIS students, faculty and staff to a luncheon with Dennis P. Halpin, who will draw from his experiences working at the House Committee on Foreign Affairs to discuss U.S.-Korea relations and how contemporary Korea-related issues are approached in Congress.

Dennis P. Halpin is currently a Visiting Scholar at the U.S.-Korea Institute at Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS). He served as a Peace Corps volunteer in South Korea, U.S. consul in Pusan, and a House Foreign Affairs Committee staff member for over twelve years.