

Johns Hopkins - SAIS Spring 2010 DEVELOPMENT ROUNDTABLE

The SAIS International Development Program & Microfinance and Social Investment Club Present:

Using Business Tools to Tackle Poverty

Paul E. Tierney, Jr.

Chairman, TechnoServe, Inc.

Wednesday, March 31, 2010 – 12:30 PM

Rome Building, Room 200
1619 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C.

Local entrepreneurs serve as powerful drivers of economic growth and human development when given access to the technical support and capital needed to realize their potential. Paul E. Tierney, Jr., Chairman of TechnoServe, Inc., will address the important emergence of social enterprise and other initiatives that draw on private sector practices to promote sustainable and scalable development solutions.

Mr. Tierney is Managing Member of Development Capital Partners and Aperture Venture Partners, two private investment vehicles specializing in emerging markets and early stage healthcare ventures, respectively. For the past 18 years, he has served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of TechnoServe, a non-profit international development organization focused on promoting entrepreneurship in Latin America, Africa, and South Asia. Mr. Tierney also has been a director of several public companies and is an Adjunct Professor of Emerging Markets at Columbia University.
