

African Studies

Core Exams:

1. Comparative National Systems 100.750
2. Choose from: American Foreign Policy Since World War II 100.720, Theories of International Relations 100.761, and Evolution of the International System 100.771

Language:

French, Arabic or Portuguese

International Economics Requirement:

- |                                       |  |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| 1. Microeconomics 300.700             | 4. International Monetary Theory 300.708 |
| 2. Macroeconomics 300.701             | 5.                                       |
| 3. International Trade Theory 300.707 | 6.                                       |

Six African Studies Courses, one course may be outside the African Studies area if it relates to an African topic:

- |   |    |
|---|----|
| 1. Economic Development of Africa is strongly recommended 780.756 | 4. |
| 2.  | 5. |
| 3.  | 6. |

In addition: Introduction to Political Inquiry 780.799, a four-week non-credit course required of first year and PhD students, must be taken first semester.

Electives, must take 16 non-language classes total:

- |    |     |
|----|-----|
| 1. | 6.  |
| 2. | 7.  |
| 3. | 8.  |
| 4. | 9.  |
| 5. | 10. |

Capstone

African Studies concentrators must produce a program paper of publishable quality, which may be the product of a regular course or supervised independent research. The capstone is due by April 15th of a student's second year. For those whose final semester is Fall, consult the Program Director for due date.

Program Office BOB 716

<http://www.sais-jhu.edu/programs/africa/africarequirements.html>