

Multimedia Resources

for
Fulbright U.S. Student Program Applicants:

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Fulbright U.S. Student Program Applicant Blog

Applicants to the Fulbright U.S. Student Program are encouraged to regularly visit the new Fulbright U.S. Student Program Applicant Blog. It can be found on us.fulbrightonline.org under Podcasts & Blog and Related Links. The blog features tips and advice on applying to Fulbright, student testimonials, a calendar with upcoming campus visits, a link help students find a campus adviser for enrolled students and links to resources such as podcasts and YouTube videos. New content will be posted on either a weekly or bi-weekly basis. <http://usfulbrightstudent.blogspot.com/>

Webinars

Alumni of the Fulbright U.S. Student Program discuss their Fulbright Experiences. IIE Program Managers moderate the discussions followed by a question and answer session. Study or research and ETA applicants are encouraged to attend the session related to their proposed country of application. Check the home page of <http://us.fulbrightonline.org> regularly for dates and times.

Podcasts (available on iTunes and on <http://us.fulbrightonline.org>)

My Fulbright Life: These are interviews with current Fulbrighters talking about their projects and experiences overseas. <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/podcast.html#life>

Applicant Podcast: These are interviews with IIE Program Area Managers and others on how to complete a successful Fulbright application. <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/podcast.html#area>

Fulbright Video Library on YouTube

The Fulbright Program has a YouTube page where you will be able to view videos produced for the Fulbright U.S. Student Program. Our channel name is: fulbrightprogram.

Fulbright U.S. Student Program on Twitter

The Fulbright U.S. Student Program is now on Twitter! Join today to start receiving updates: <https://twitter.com/FulbrightPrgrm>.

Administered by the Institute of International Education