The SAIS Latin American Studies program financed twenty-seven (27) internships/research fellowships in Latin America during the summer of 2011. These professional experiences give our LASP students an advantage in the increasingly competitive job market due to the important skills learned on the job and cultural awareness gained from living in Latin America.

One student traveled to ARGENTINA this summer:
• Alex Rosen, Fundación Pensar, Buenos Aires

Four students interned in BRAZIL:
• Meredith Dukes, Fecomercio, São Paulo
• Andrew Orihuela, Dow Jones Newswires, São Paulo
• Alethea Scally, China-Brazil Business Council, Rio de Janeiro
• Saleema Vellani, China-Brazil Business Council, Rio de Janeiro

In CHILE, we placed:
• Andrew Abramczyk, PineBridge Investments, Santiago
• Deepti Iyer, PineBridge Investments, Santiago

In COLOMBIA, four internships were offered:
• Cornelius Fleischhaker, Ministerio de Hacienda y Crédito Público (Colombian Ministry of Finance & Public Credit), Bogotá
• Dan Kornfield, Organization of American States (OAS)-Misión de Apoyo al Proceso de Paz en Colombia, Bogotá (research project and intern)
• Dara Mersky, TechnoServe, Bogotá
• Felix Steinberg, Ministerio de Hacienda y Crédito Público, Bogotá

We placed two students in COSTA RICA:
• Jonas Ballreich, Dirección General de Migración y Extranjería, (DGME), Ministerio de Gobernación y Policía de Costa Rica (Ministry of Interior), San José
• Charles Sancy Herrera, Dirección General de Migración y Extranjería (DGME), San José

Two students traveled to the DOMINICAN REPUBLIC this summer:
• Glenn Apolinar, Research Fellowship “Recommendations for Short-term and Long-term Policy Reforms for the Dominican Education System”, Santo Domingo
• Sam George, Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)-Labor Markets, Santo Domingo

Five students interned in MEXICO:
• Jason Graffam, Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)-Labor Markets & Social Security, Mexico City
• Matt McClymont, Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)-Capital Markets, Mexico City
• Elisabeth Mondl, International Finance Corporation (IFC), Mexico City
• Jimena Serrano, Equinoccio Mexican Microfinance Fund, Mexico City
• Carolina Zimmerman, ManattJones Global Strategies, Mexico City
Four students were placed in PANAMA:
- Daniele Loi, UNICEF, Panamá City
- Celeste Tinari, U.S. Department of State, U.S. Embassy-Economic Section, Panamá City
- Lara Viada, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Regional Centre, Panamá City
- Paul Welcher, Ministerio de la Presidencia (Panamanian Ministry of the Presidency), Panamá City

In PERU, one internship was offered:

We placed two students in URUGUAY:
- Kristina Lara, Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)-Competitiveness, Montevideo
- Ryan Tang, Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)-Trade & Integration, Montevideo