STAMP CHINESE PROFICIENCY TEST REQUEST FORM

To make arrangements to take the STAMP test, please follow the instructions below or email nanjing@jhu.edu for further testing details.

Begin by completing and submitting this form along with your testing fee to the Hopkins-Nanjing Center Washington Support Office by email, mail or fax. The testing fee is $25. Checks should be made out to "The Johns Hopkins University". Upon receipt of this form, the Washington Office will email instructions and a link to a practice test to you. Prior to your planned testing date, the admissions office will email the STAMP testing login codes and proctoring guide to your designated proctor (a professor, academic administrator or work supervisor). You and your proctor should arrange a time and place to take the exam, and it should be completed by the application deadline of the program to which you are applying. NOTE: You are responsible for completing the reading and listening sections only.

Please note that the STAMP test requires the use of a computer/laptop as well as headphones, and takes approximately 2 hours to administer. Fluency in English rather than knowledge of Chinese is essential for administering the test. After receiving your test results, the admissions office will provide you with a detailed explanation of your score.
