“Celebrating Pioneers in Foreign Policy”

Friday, February 5, 5:30-8:30 PM, Kenney Auditorium
Black History Month Kick-off Happy Hour: “Celebrating Africa and Her Diaspora”
- Featuring a live performance by JHU African Dance Team Temps d’Afrique.

Wednesday, February 10, 7:00-9:00 PM, BOB 500
Black History Month Themed Trivia Night Featuring Washington, DC Graduate Schools

Friday, February 12, 4:30-5:30 PM, Nitze 508
Second Annual “Blackonomics” (Black-economics) Discussion
- A discussion about economic inequalities among minority groups, including in regard to education, employment, voting rights, and more.

Monday, February 15, 11:00 AM-1:00 PM, Nitze 507
Higher Achievement Delegation
- A group of sixth to eighth grade students with the “Higher Achievement” program will visit campus for a series of lectures and panels, as well as a foreign policy simulation.

Tuesday, February 16, 4:30-5:30 PM, Kenney Auditorium
Lani Guinier on Race, Class & Community: Democratizing Higher Education in America
- Lani Guinier, Bennett Boskey Professor of Law at Harvard Law School, was the first woman of color appointed to a tenured professorship at the Harvard Law School. Her writings address issues of race, gender, and democratic decision-making, and seek new ways of approaching questions like affirmative action while calling for candid public discourse on these topics. RSVP here.

Wednesday, February 17, 12:00-2:00 PM
Diversity in Diplomacy: Challenges and Opportunities in International Affairs
- Join members of the US Department of State for a roundtable discussion on challenges and opportunities in international affairs, featuring Kedenard Raymond, Zakiya Carr Johnson, and Naomi Mattos. RSVP here.

Tuesday, February 23, 8:00-9:30 AM, Rome 812
- Enjoy breakfast and lively discussion with Hon. Clifton Wharton ’48, the first African American to graduate from Johns Hopkins SAIS, for a discussion of his life and recent book release. RSVP here.

Wednesday, February 24, 12:30-2:00 PM, BOB 500
Dean Lecture Series: National Museum of African American History and Culture: A Place to Remember, Commemorate, and Celebrate
- Presentation by Dr. Jacquelyn Serwer, Chief Curator, Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture. RSVP here.

Wednesday, February 24, 5:00-7:00 PM, BOB 500
Pioneers in Foreign Policy Panel with Black Professionals in International Affairs
- A robust panel of pioneers will discuss opportunities and challenges facing the black community in international affairs. The panel will include Ambassador Perkins, US Ambassador to South Africa during the apartheid. RSVP here.

Monday, February 29, 12:30-2:00 PM, Kenney Auditorium
Discussion with JHU Provost Robert Lieberman
- Provost Lieberman is a well-known scholar on issues of race and politics in America, social welfare policy and the welfare state. RSVP here.

KEY
- RSVP Required
- Open to the public
- Open to the SAIS community
- Open to SAIS students
- By invitation only

If you have questions or inquiries about programming, contact saisdiversity@gmail.com.