Leopold Schepp Foundation Grants in Aid

The Foundation grants approximately 200 individual awards each year to both full time undergraduate students enrolled in four year bachelor programs and to full time graduate students.

The Foundation also grants a small number of fellowship awards for independent study and research, usually post-doctoral, based on the recommendation of a recognized institution. These fellowships are intended to encourage research that will improve the general welfare of mankind. Because funds for such grants are limited, interested applicants should inquire as to the availability of funding for fellowships in their chosen field of study

Global Supplementary Grant Program

The Network Scholarship Programs is pleased to offer supplementary grants to students from selected countries of Eastern and Central Europe and the former Soviet Union. The purpose of the program is to enable qualified students to pursue Doctoral studies in Humanities and Social Sciences at accredited universities in Western Europe, Asia, Australia and North America. Global SGP grants will be awarded on the basis of academic excellence and financial need. The grants will provide supplemental funding for up to one year of study with the option to apply for a second year. Only students who have been accepted into a full-time doctoral (PhD) program at an accredited university are eligible to apply.
