Specialization in Development Microeconomics
Must be completed and submitted along with your transcript to the International Economics Program before your last semester

Name ______________________ Expected Date of Graduation _____________

Grade Requirements: In order to receive the Development Microeconomics Specialization, students must maintain a B+ average in the four selected courses. Students not maintaining a B+ average will not be awarded the specialization.

Double Counting Courses: Courses that appear in multiple specialization lists may be counted only towards one specialization.

Requirements for the Specialization:

1. Choose ONE econometrics course:
   - 340.710.01 Econometrics
   - 340.710.02 Econometrics (Advanced Math)
     (Note that econometrics is a prerequisite of several of the other courses in the specialization)

2. Choose ONE of the following courses:
   - 320.715 Theories & Models of Economic Development (Bologna)
   - 320.731 Microeconomics of Development
   - 320.744 Economic Development

3. Choose TWO of the following courses:
   - 300.736 Organization and Regulation of Infrastructure
   - 300.740 Enterprise, Regulation, and Development
   - 300.754 Public Finance
   - 320.731 Microeconomics of Development (if not completed previously)
   - 320.738 Trade Policy in Transition & Development
   - 320.740 Cost-Benefit Analysis
   - 320.744 Economic Development (if not completed previously)
   - 340.731 Applied Econometrics
   - 840.715 Economics of Immigration
   - 840.712 Dynamics of Commodity Economics

4. Participate in at least THREE International Economics seminars, held on Thursdays from 4:30-6:00pm. Contact Sherry Russo (srusso1@jhu.edu) to be placed on the mailing list for these seminars. Remember to sign in to receive credit for attending the seminars. If you cannot attend at least three of these seminars, please be in contact with Professor Leo Feler for alternative seminars you can attend.

   Dates attended: 1)__________________2)____________________3)_______________

5. Participate in at least TWO skills courses or workshops offered through Career Services. Some of these can be done online and can be completed from the Bologna Center. See the Career Services website (http://www.sais-jhu.edu/career-services/skill-development) or contact Martina Leinz (mleinz@jhu.edu) for further information on these courses.

   □ Course Name________________________________________ (Date completed______________)
   □ Course Name________________________________________ (Date completed______________)

If you have questions, please contact Professor Leo Feler (lfeler@jhu.edu).