Student Veterans of America

Johns Hopkins SAIS is a member of “Student Veterans of America”, a national coalition of over 1,500 student veteran organizations in all 50 states.

Listed below are some of the benefits of having an SVA Chapter on campus, as well as some of the ways we serve student veterans across the country:

- Programs - This year SVA is poised to provide almost $2 million in programs and services to student veterans. This section of the website can help your chapter: provide up-to-date information on our many Scholarships, attend a Leadership Training, or develop your chapter's strategic planning for the year with the help of SVA's Chapter Leader Academy.
- Peer-to-Peer Support - If you are ever looking to connect with fellow chapters in your area, use our Chapter Directory to locate and contact Chapter Leaders and Advisors.
- Career and Professional Development - SVA has partnered with LinkedIn to empower and train student veterans and SVA Chapters to reach their career and professional development goals through our professional networks on LinkedIn, and through our Chapter Career Development training. Learn more about your next steps to career success here.
- Advocacy - SVA's Policy and Government Affairs team provides student veterans, service members and their families a voice by working with Congress and the Federal government to promote forward-looking legislation like the Forever GI Bill, the most comprehensive expansion and improvement of the Post 9/11 GI Bill since its inception in 2008.
- Research – The Student Veterans of America's Research Team works to inform the public, stake holders, policy makers, and others on student veteran and military connected students' topics and concerns through empirical research like the Million Records Project (MRP) and the National Veterans Education Success Tracker \(NVEST\).
